

Peter Crow, PhD CMIInstD

Dr. Peter Crow is an accredited director and chair, and an advisor with an extensive record helping boards realise organisational potential. He has served on the boards of private and PE-controlled companies, family businesses, and community agencies; advised boards, chairs, institutional investors and governments; curated director development courses; and spoken and written on topical matters.

Drawing on globally relevant expertise (in corporate governance, strategy, boardcraft and strategic leadership, in particular), broad business and boardroom experience (notably agribusiness, technology and innovation, professional services, manufacturing, distribution, healthcare, and local government), his insightful contributions have proven invaluable to the fortunes of a wide range of enterprises, across five continents.

Peter holds a doctorate in corporate governance and strategy, a first in technology and management, and chartered membership of the Institute of Directors. He lives in New Zealand but works globally.
